

Principality of Andorra
10-12-2015

1. Legal basis
	There is no legal basis for an obligatory continuing training for lawyers except the law against money laundering. Next January 2016, an initial training will be obligatory for all lawyers.
2. Training
2.1. Basic information
	Extent
	Exemptions
2.2. Activities and methods
Activities	Courses	X	Against money laundering, but other courses are provided in an extent area of matters (criminal law, family, successions, urbanism, etc).
	Language courses
	Teaching
	Writing/publishing
	Foreign training activities
	Other
Methods	Availability of e-methods
2.3. Course providers
	Bar/Law Society	X
	Accredited provider	X	University of Andorra
	Other provider (free market providers)
3. Assessment of training activities
	Course of accredited provider/ Accredited course of 'other provider'
	Other training activity
4. Supervision
4.1. Compliance procedure
	Regular control
	Random control
4.2. Sanctions
	Non-disciplinary	The training against money laundering is appreciated by the financial intelligence unit (UIFAND) but no sanctions are regulated.
	Disciplinary		